

I Am The Mayan

Captain I whisper out to you
Ocean's breath mountain's morning dew
I am the Mayan shackled in chains
I'm a skeleton if my sails never hang

Oh dear Captain hear my restless voice
It's the one that beckons you down to the shore
My lonely sailor feel your soul stir
Listen from your bed while the sea she roars
Echoing voices of the dolphin song
Dreams of full moon dancing with the break of dawn
Captain feel her heartbeat through my wheel
Call up the winds to blow let my sails fill

Oh dear Captain won't you hear my restless voice
It's the one that beckons you down to the shore
My lonely sailor let your soul stir
Listen from your bed while the sea she roars
Haunting voices of a pirate's song
Harbored treasures of wars long gone
Captain, feel your heartbeat through my wheel
Call up the winds to blow let my sails fill

I am the Mayan shackled in chains
I'm a skeleton, if my sails never hang
I am the Mayan
I am the Mayan
